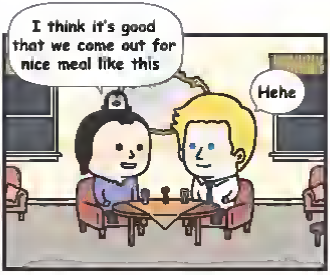
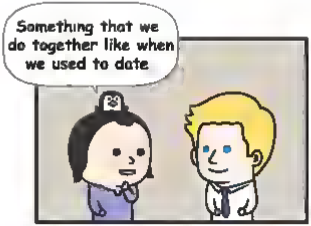
Romance

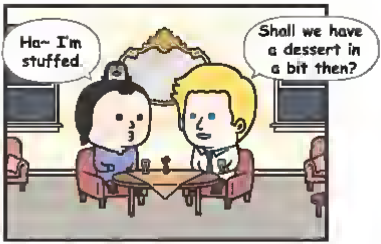


Mev and I went to out for meal after we had got properly dressed up.



It seems very important that ...

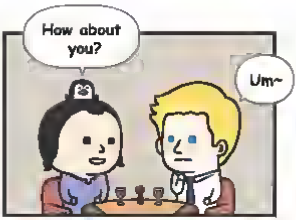
.. a married couple put on effort to blow romance into their relationship because it can turn to be boring easily.



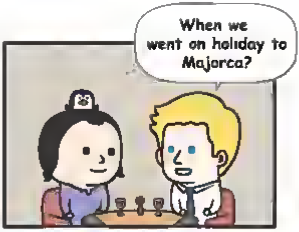
Also this kind of otmosphere helps us bring out some feelings from deep inside of us.

Mev osked me.

Perhaps that I started a new project?
And it's almost done too.

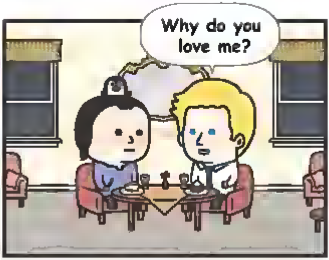


How about you?
Um~



After we asked and answered some questions like this,...

... when the dessert came out, Mev asked me again.



For the short moment, I thought

There were many reasons
in the beginning of course.

Mev seemed very nice and good.

He was very cute
and interesting.

And he was tall
and looked handsome in my opinion.

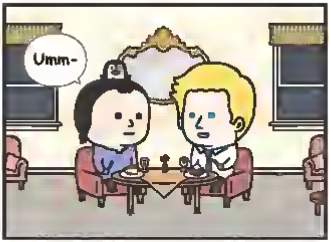
However,...

... somehow, these reasons
didn't feel right at the moment.



How shall I say...
It doesn't mean that I love him less.

I just felt like I couldn't tell any specific reasons to explain my love for him.

Just loving him become such o naturol thing for me, so
I felt weird to pick the reosons.

I thought it's so magical that I can just love someone else
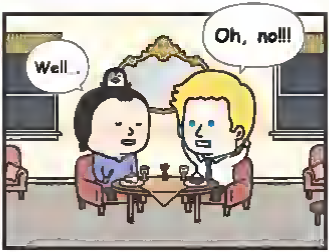
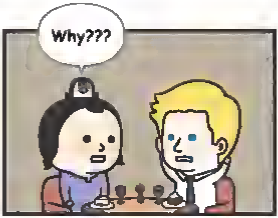
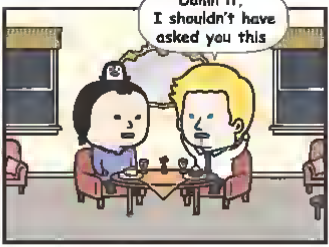
so much like this



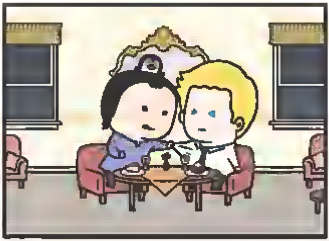
When I was just about to tell him these thoughts, Mev suddenly shouted at me.



You're going to ask me why I love you too. Right?



Damn it, I shouldn't have asked you this



The end of romance.
